- 5. "DOCUMENT" and/or "DOCUMENTS" unless otherwise indicated, are used in their customarily broad sense and shall refer to and mean all writings and other tangible things of any nature whatsoever, and shall include, but not be limited to, all writings (or drafts thereof), medical records, drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, phone records, other data compilations or storage devices from which information can be obtained (even if such information must be translated into a reasonably usable form), magnetically recorded or stored information generated by a computer, contracts, agreements, communications, correspondence, telegrams, memoranda, records, reports, books, summaries or records of telephone conversations, summaries or records of personal conversations or interviews, diaries, forecasts, statistical statements, work papers, drafts, accounts, analytical records, minutes or records of meetings or conferences, records, reports or summaries of negotiations, brochures, pamphlets, circulars, calendars, notes, marginal notations, bills, invoices, checks, lists, journals, advertising, and all other written, printed, recorded or photographic matter or sound reproductions, or tangible representations of things, however produced or reproduced, including ELECTRONICALLY STORED INFORMATION and all nonidentical copies of the foregoing.
  - 6. "MR. DEPP" means and refers to Plaintiff John C. Depp, II.
  - 7. "MS. HEARD" means and refers to Defendant Amber Laura Heard.
- 8. The term "PERSON" and/or "PERSONS" shall be broadly construed to include all natural and artificial persons.

INSTRUCTIONS

- 9. When necessary, the singular form of a word shall be interpreted as plural, and the masculine gender shall be deemed to include the feminine, in order to bring within the scope any DOCUMENTS which might otherwise be construed to be outside the scope of these Requests. The terms, "and" and "or," have both conjunctive and disjunctive meanings, and "each," "any," and "all" mean "each and every."
- 10. All undefined terms shall be interpreted according to their plain and commonsense meaning.

11. DOCUMENTS should be produced as single page .tiff format files imaged at 300 dpi, with the exception of stand-alone Databases (e.g., Access), spreadsheets (e.g., Excel), slide presentations (e.g., PowerPoint), video files, and audio files, which should be produced in native format. Each .tiff file should have a unique name matching the Bates number labeled on the corresponding page. Color DOCUMENTS should be produced in color.

- 12. DOCUMENTS should be produced with (a) a delimited data file (.dat), and (b) an image load file (.opt and/or .lfp). Each .tiff in a production must be referenced in the corresponding image load file. The total number of documents referenced in a production's data load file should match the total number of designated document breaks in the image load file for the production.
- 13. DOCUMENTS should be produced with extracted metadata for each DOCUMENT in the form of a .dat file. The metadata should include the following fields, to the extent such fields are available in the original DOCUMENT as it originally existed in its native format:

Field Field	Description
Bates_Begin	The bates label of the first page of the document
Bates_End	The bates label of the last page of the document
Attach_Begin	The bates label of the first page of a family of documents  (e.g., email and attachment)
Attach_End	The bates label of the last page of a family of documents
Sent_Date	For email, the sent date of the message
Sent_Time	For email, the sent time of the message converted to GMT
Email_Author	The sender of an email message (email FROM)
Recipient	The recipients of an email message (email TO)
CC	The recipients of a copy of an email message (email CC)

- 14. All DOCUMENTS attached to and/or embedded in an e-mail and/or other DOCUMENT must be produced contemporaneously and sequentially after the parent e-mail/document.
- possession, custody, or control. Without limitation of the term "control," a DOCUMENT is deemed to be in your control if you have the right to secure the DOCUMENT or a copy thereof from another person or public or private entity having actual possession thereof, or if you have the practical ability to obtain the DOCUMENT from a third-party, irrespective of any legal entitlement to the DOCUMENT. If any original DOCUMENT requested is not in your possession, custody, or control, then you are required to produce the best available copy, and to state, to the best of your knowledge, the name and address of the person in possession and/or control of the original. The fact that a DOCUMENT is in possession of another person or entity does not relieve you of the obligation to produce your copy of the DOCUMENT, even if the two DOCUMENTS are identical. In addition, any copy of a DOCUMENT shall be produced if it differs in any respect from the original (e.g., by reason of handwritten notes or comments having been added to copy which do not appear on the original or otherwise).
- 16. If responsive DOCUMENTS no longer exist because they have been destroyed, cannot be located, or are otherwise no longer in your possession or subject to your control, identify each DOCUMENT and describe the circumstances under which it was lost or destroyed.
- 17. All DOCUMENTS should be organized and labeled to correspond by number with the numbered categories set forth in these Requests. If a DOCUMENT is responsive to more than one Request, reference that DOCUMENT in your written response to each Request to which it is responsive or in a load file identifying the same.
- 18. A Request for a DOCUMENT shall be deemed to include a request for any and all file folders within which the DOCUMENT was contained, transmittal sheets, cover letters, exhibits, enclosures, or attachments to the DOCUMENT in addition to the DOCUMENT itself.

19. If you claim that any DOCUMENT is, in whole or in part, beyond the scope of permissible discovery (including but not limited to any claim of privilege or confidentiality), specify in detail each and every ground on which such claim rests and identify generally what the document is. If you assert any claim of privilege, then at the time of production you are to furnish a privilege log that specifically identifies each DOCUMENT (or portion) withheld by (a) date, (b) author, (c) recipient, (d) persons copied, (e) general description of the subject matter of the DOCUMENT, and (f) a statement of the specific privilege claimed and the basis upon which such privilege is claimed as to each separate DOCUMENT (or portion) withheld. The privilege log should contain enough specificity, but without disclosing privileged information, to allow Plaintiffs and the Court to adequately assess the privilege claimed.

- 20. To the extent you consider any portion of the following Requests to be objectionable, (a) identify the portion of the Request claimed to be objectionable, (b) state the nature and basis of the objection, and (c) produce DOCUMENTS responsive to any portion of such Request that is not claimed to be objectionable.
- 21. If you believe that any Request is unclear, unintelligible, or because of its wording otherwise prevents you from responding fully to that Request, identify the ambiguity or source of confusion and explain the definition and understanding that you relied upon in responding. It shall be insufficient to object to a particular Request on the grounds that it is vague, ambiguous, or otherwise unclear, and withhold DOCUMENTS on that basis without seeking clarification.

- 14. All DOCUMENTS attached to and/or embedded in an e-mail and/or other DOCUMENT must be produced contemporaneously and sequentially after the parent e-mail/document.
- possession, custody, or control. Without limitation of the term "control," a DOCUMENT is deemed to be in your control if you have the right to secure the DOCUMENT or a copy thereof from another person or public or private entity having actual possession thereof, or if you have the practical ability to obtain the DOCUMENT from a third-party, irrespective of any legal entitlement to the DOCUMENT. If any original DOCUMENT requested is not in your possession, custody, or control, then you are required to produce the best available copy, and to state, to the best of your knowledge, the name and address of the person in possession and/or control of the original. The fact that a DOCUMENT is in possession of another person or entity does not relieve you of the obligation to produce your copy of the DOCUMENT, even if the two DOCUMENTS are identical. In addition, any copy of a DOCUMENT shall be produced if it differs in any respect from the original (e.g., by reason of handwritten notes or comments having been added to copy which do not appear on the original or otherwise).
- 16. If responsive DOCUMENTS no longer exist because they have been destroyed, cannot be located, or are otherwise no longer in your possession or subject to your control, identify each DOCUMENT and describe the circumstances under which it was lost or destroyed.
- 17. All DOCUMENTS should be organized and labeled to correspond by number with the numbered categories set forth in these Requests. If a DOCUMENT is responsive to more than one Request, reference that DOCUMENT in your written response to each Request to which it is responsive or in a load file identifying the same.
- 18. A Request for a DOCUMENT shall be deemed to include a request for any and all file folders within which the DOCUMENT was contained, transmittal sheets, cover letters, exhibits, enclosures, or attachments to the DOCUMENT in addition to the DOCUMENT itself.

28 ||

- 19. If you claim that any DOCUMENT is, in whole or in part, beyond the scope of permissible discovery (including but not limited to any claim of privilege or confidentiality), specify in detail each and every ground on which such claim rests and identify generally what the document is. If you assert any claim of privilege, then at the time of production you are to furnish a privilege log that specifically identifies each DOCUMENT (or portion) withheld by (a) date, (b) author, (c) recipient, (d) persons copied, (e) general description of the subject matter of the DOCUMENT, and (f) a statement of the specific privilege claimed and the basis upon which such privilege is claimed as to each separate DOCUMENT (or portion) withheld. The privilege log should contain enough specificity, but without disclosing privileged information, to allow Plaintiffs and the Court to adequately assess the privilege claimed.
- 20. To the extent you consider any portion of the following Requests to be objectionable, (a) identify the portion of the Request claimed to be objectionable, (b) state the nature and basis of the objection, and (c) produce DOCUMENTS responsive to any portion of such Request that is not claimed to be objectionable.
- 21. If you believe that any Request is unclear, unintelligible, or because of its wording otherwise prevents you from responding fully to that Request, identify the ambiguity or source of confusion and explain the definition and understanding that you relied upon in responding. It shall be insufficient to object to a particular Request on the grounds that it is vague, ambiguous, or otherwise unclear, and withhold DOCUMENTS on that basis without seeking clarification.

VIA HAND DELIVERY

Mr. John T. Frey, Clerk Fairfax County Circuit Court 4110 Chain Bridge Road, Suite 320 Fairfax, Virginia 22030

RE: John C. Depp, II v. Amber Laura Heard, No. CL-2019-0002911

Dear Mr. Frey,

Please find enclosed for filing in the above-referenced matter, original attorney-issued subpoena for documents to third party witness Children's Hospital Los Angeles. Also enclosed are three copies of the subpoena and a check for the Court's related fee. The subpoenas will be served in California by private process server. We request one file-stamped copy for immediate return. We also request one certified copy of the subpoena to be issued and served under the laws of the state of California. Upon preparation of the certified copy, please return by mail using the enclosed stamped return envelope.

This letter certifies that California has reciprocal privileges regarding discovery with Virginia and that I will cause copies of the subpoena to be served on counsel of record. Thank you for your assistance.

Regards,

BROWN RUDNICK LLP
