Constitutional Policing Conference

Greetings from The Institute for Constitutional Policing Conference. Together with Fairfax County Independent Police Auditor (IPA) Richard Schott, and our peers from Arlington, Alexandria and nationally, we are here to learn from and engage with national leaders in Constitutional Policing. I look forward to presenting key takeaways at the Panels June Public Meeting.

Outreach

This office continues to work with the Office of Immigrant Community Affairs on a comprehensive outreach to the county's robust Spanish speaking communities. We are also developing a Spanish language public service announcement to augment our efforts. We continue to look to collaborate with county partners to engage and inform Fairfax County youth. During the month of June and throughout the summer there will be various opportunities for the entire Panel to participate in outreach endeavors. We will convene further meetings with our partners from Neighborhood and Community Services, The Out of School Network, and My Brothers Keepers, as well as the Fairfax County Police Department, Communities of Trust, the Commonwealth Attorney's Office, and any office willing to collaborate on the concept of a "Safe Summer" event for our county's youth populations.

Upcoming PCRP meetings

The list of future locations for the second half of the year will be presented to the Panel at the June 1st meeting.
