Training

Our next training will be held on Saturday, November 12th, 2022, from 9am-4pm, at the Pennino Building, located at 12011 Government Center Parkway, Room 200. This will be a Civilian Review and Oversight training conducted by past National Association of Civilian Oversight of Law Enforcement (NACOLE) President, Brian Corr. The training will focus on the crux of the Panel's mandate and equip Panel members with ideas and concepts on how to approach case reviews.

Outreach

In re-branding the Panel as a public leaning and community engaged County Government entity, and as this office continues to share the work of the Panel throughout the County, we are here tonight in Gum Springs, holding our first Panel meeting outside of the Government Center. Thanks to the assistance of the Fairfax County Department Neighborhood and Community Services we are here tonight, and next month we will be holding our December 1st meeting at the James Lee Community Center in Falls Church (2855 Annandale Road, Falls Church, VA). Lastly, in meeting with Public Safety Committee Chairman, Supervisor Lusk, he has offered his assistance in securing other locations, including the Wish Center at the Hybla Community Center, where we hope to have residents of the Audubon Estates Community in attendance. In the new year, we are looking to bring our meetings to a variety of houses of worship, to include churches, synagogues, and mosques; the goal is to meet where the people meet.

WE'RE ONE WEEK OUT!!!**

On Thursday, November 10th, 2022, from 6:30pm-9:30pm this office will be hosting a PCRCP Reception in the Government Center Forum (lobby atrium). We are inviting the Board of Supervisors, other County leaders, the Fairfax County Police Chief, his command staff, station commanders, Internal Affairs leadership, community leaders and organizations, as well as members of the general public. The event will be an opportunity to introduce/re-introduce the Panel to the greater Fairfax County community and to hear from the Panel Chair. This event will also be an opportunity for the community to interact with its elected and appointed officials. Channel 16 will be covering the event and refreshments will be served. Invitations have gone out and we have approximately 70 RSVP's!
