Public Hearings

Public Hearing on Plan Amendment 2013-III-DS1 (Dulles Suburban Center Study), Located in Western Fairfax County, Adjacent to the Eastern and Southern Boundaries of the Washington Dulles International Airport and East of Loudoun County (Sully and Dranesville Districts)

Supervisor Kathy Smith made a motion to:

- Adopt the Planning Commission Alternative for Plan Amendment 2013-III-DS1.
- Direct staff to evaluate a Comprehensive Plan amendment for Land Unit J of the Dulles Suburban Center. The Plan amendment should consider the addition of new land uses generally within the current overall baseline intensity of .50 FAR.

- Direct staff to evaluate a Comprehensive Plan amendment to extend the boundary of the Dulles Suburban Center to create a new land unit that includes the Sully Station shopping center.

Supervisor McKay seconded the motion. The motion carried by unanimous vote.

On July 9, 2013, through the approval of the 2013 Comprehensive Plan Work Program, the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors authorized Plan Amendment 2013-III-DS1 for consideration of a Comprehensive Plan Amendment for the Dulles Suburban Center. The Plan Amendment proposes updates to the Plan guidance based on the work of the Dulles Suburban Center Advisory Group and staff, who evaluated the existing conditions and the planned land uses for the Dulles Suburban Center.
